

A person is considered mentally capable of providing informed consent when she/he: (Select 2)

Is able to understand the information

Can appreciate the consequences of the decision

Has a mini-mental score of greater than 18

Is between the ages of 18 and 65 years of age

Has no known history of cognitive or psychiatric disorders
